

WHERE TO FIND BOARD.

"BOARDS WANTED" ADS. IN THE WORLD DURING THE LAST FIVE DAYS.....

650
557

SAME DAYS LAST YEAR.....

A Gain of Nearly 17 Per Cent.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA.

I O'CLOCK.

DAVIS RESUMES.

His Old Patrons Secretly Entertained on the Bowery.

Orgies Now Held Over the Closed Excise Exchange.

Beer and Wine Sold Without License in a Back Room.

"To Let" Signs Displayed On the Ground Floor to Hoodwink the Police.

NEW YORK'S OUTLAWS.

[A Table Subject to Daily Change.]

BILLY McGLORY. In the Penitentiary.

TOM GOULD. Indicted, Dive Closed for Good.

CAREY WEILH. Indicted, Dive Closed for Good.

AUGUST GITHON. Indicted, Dive Closed for Good.

FRANK STEPHENSON. Indicted, Dive Closed for Good.

ALFRED DAVIS. Indicted, Dive Being Run Secretly.

LOUIS WALTHERS. Indicted, Dive Closed for Good.

JOHN KELLY. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

THOMAS McORMICK. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

DANIEL SCRIBNER. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

J. H. McGILL. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

PAUL McCARTHY. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

JOHN J. McALEER. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

CHARLES SMITH. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

JIM SULLIVAN.... Dive Annex Closed.

JOHN J. MURPHY. Dive Annex Closed.

KEEPER OF THE LENOX. Dive Annex Closed.

SIMON BUTTNER.... Dive Annex Closed.

LOUIS STAVER.... Dive Wide Open.

IGNATZ BUTTNER.... Dive Wide Open.

DAVIS'S PLACE REOPENED.

The Excise Exchange Dive Secretly Entertaining Its Old Patrons.

The "Excise Exchange," that ultra-notorious den of vice at 336 Bowery, is dead so far as the external appearance of the downstairs part of the establishment is concerned, but Mr. Alfred Davis, its manager, is still catering to the wants of his old patrons.

While Mr. Davis has given the authorities to understand by the dark and deserted appearance of his old quarters by numerous "to let" signs and by other charting hints that he is out of the business for good, he is really still running his establishment, quietly to be sure, but in the very same building.

When Mr. Davis left his house recently for selling liquor after hours, he promptly closed his saloon, the assignation-room in the rear and the sumptuously furnished wine room on the second floor.

Naturally the place at once took on a deserted appearance, and the placing of "To let" signs in the window by Mr. Peter of 123 Grand street, made him the conviction of the public that the "Excise" was no more, and that Mr. Alfred Davis had permanently retired from business.

But such has not been the case. For several nights Mr. Davis showed himself at numerous resorting on the Bowery to re-enact the prevailing opinion that he had retired. Subsequent events show that Mr. Davis's actions were studied with a view to successfully hoodwinking the authorities and the police, who were soon at a loss as to what to do with the Excise under rigid surveillance.

It is now discovered that while he was a retired dive-keeper, Mr. Davis, confident and emboldened by the fact that he had so far escaped indictment and arrest, was quietly making preparations to open his establishment, under more secret conditions and with somewhat less extensive accommodations, it is true, but with the same features that used to draw crowds to his old resort.

The Pope Gives His Usual Audiences

—His Health.

ROME, Jan. 22.—The Pope gave audiences noon to-day, as is his usual custom.

Conflicting reports concerning the health of His Holiness are still current. The liberal papers state the Pope's physicians remain for five hours at the Vatican last night.

No Anxiety Over the Outcome of the Czarina's Illness.

—His Health.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 22.—The Czarina has not yet entirely recovered from her recent indisposition. She is suffering from a cold, and her physicians will not allow her to leave her apartments.

No anxiety, however, is felt regarding the outcome of her illness.

A Losing Business.

—His Health.

BOSTON, Jan. 22.—Mr. Brownson is a man of letters now.

"In what way?"

"He is hearing from his creditors."

Brewed from Malt and Hops Only.

Brownie Bag Co., Manhattan Beer, 222 E. 38th St.

The # EVENING EDITION

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1892.

The World.

THE REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE.

"HOUSES, ROOMS AND APARTMENTS TO LET" ADS. IN THE WORLD DURING THE FIRST FIFTEEN DAYS OF JANUARY, 1892.....

3,412

2,964

SAME DAYS, 1891.....

A Gain of Over 15 Per Cent.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA.

I O'CLOCK.

DAVIS RESUMES.

His Old Patrons Secretly Entertained on the Bowery.

Orgies Now Held Over the Closed Excise Exchange.

Beer and Wine Sold Without License in a Back Room.

"To Let" Signs Displayed On the Ground Floor to Hoodwink the Police.

NEW YORK'S OUTLAWS.

[A Table Subject to Daily Change.]

BILLY McGLORY. In the Penitentiary.

TOM GOULD. Indicted, Dive Closed for Good.

CAREY WEILH. Indicted, Dive Closed for Good.

AUGUST GITHON. Indicted, Dive Closed for Good.

FRANK STEPHENSON. Indicted, Dive Closed for Good.

ALFRED DAVIS. Indicted, Dive Being Run Secretly.

LOUIS WALTHERS. Indicted, Dive Closed for Good.

JOHN KELLY. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

THOMAS McORMICK. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

DANIEL SCRIBNER. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

J. H. McGILL. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

PAUL McCARTHY. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

JOHN J. McALEER. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

CHARLES SMITH. Indicted, Dive Annex Closed.

JIM SULLIVAN.... Dive Annex Closed.

JOHN J. MURPHY. Dive Annex Closed.

KEEPER OF THE LENOX. Dive Annex Closed.

SIMON BUTTNER.... Dive Annex Closed.

LOUIS STAVER.... Dive Wide Open.

IGNATZ BUTTNER.... Dive Wide Open.

—Davis's Place Reopened.

The Excise Exchange Dive Secretly Entertaining Its Old Patrons.

The "Excise Exchange," that ultra-notorious den of vice at 336 Bowery, is dead so far as the external appearance of the downstairs part of the establishment is concerned, but Mr. Alfred Davis, its manager, is still catering to the wants of his old patrons.

While Mr. Davis has given the authorities to understand by the dark and deserted appearance of his old quarters by numerous "to let" signs and by other charting hints that he is out of the business for good, he is really still running his establishment, quietly to be sure, but in the very same building.

When Mr. Davis left his house recently for selling liquor after hours, he promptly closed his saloon, the assignation-room in the rear and the sumptuously furnished wine room on the second floor.

Naturally the place at once took on a deserted appearance, and the placing of "To let" signs in the window by Mr. Peter of 123 Grand street, made him the conviction of the public that the "Excise" was no more, and that Mr. Alfred Davis had permanently retired from business.

But such has not been the case. For several nights Mr. Davis showed himself at numerous resorting on the Bowery to re-enact the prevailing opinion that he had retired. Subsequent events show that Mr. Davis's actions were studied with a view to successfully hoodwinking the authorities and the police, who were soon at a loss as to what to do with the Excise under rigid surveillance.

It is now discovered that while he was a retired dive-keeper, Mr. Davis, confident and emboldened by the fact that he had so far escaped indictment and arrest, was quietly making preparations to open his establishment, under more secret conditions and with somewhat less extensive accommodations, it is true, but with the same features that used to draw crowds to his old resort.

The Pope Gives His Usual Audiences

—His Health.

ROME, Jan. 22.—The Pope gave audiences noon to-day, as is his usual custom.

Conflicting reports concerning the health of His Holiness are still current. The liberal papers state the Pope's physicians remain for five hours at the Vatican last night.

No Anxiety Over the Outcome of the Czarina's Illness.

—His Health.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 22.—The Czarina has not yet entirely recovered from her recent indisposition. She is suffering from a cold, and her physicians will not allow her to leave her apartments.

No anxiety, however, is felt regarding the outcome of her illness.

A Losing Business.

—His Health.

BOSTON, Jan. 22.—Mr. Brownson is a man of letters now.

"In what way?"

"He is hearing from his creditors."

Brewed from Malt and Hops Only.

Brownie Bag Co., Manhattan Beer, 222 E. 38th St.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

IT MEETS WITH GREAT FAVOR.

Horses That Will Run for Purse at Guttenburg To-Day.

Prospect that the Track Will Be in Good Condition.

Following is the programme and tips for the races at Guttenburg to-day:

The second race will probably be the best of the day. Irregular, McKeever, O. P. H., Lord Clinton and Knapp, are all well matched and should make an interesting race.

To-morrow you pass in through another door and the last into an upper back room, so far from the street and so securely guarded that not a sound of revelry could ever reach the bowery.

The arrangement of the three doors makes this possible, for all three are never open at once, and the reader for admittance must pass through a series of passages that in their intricacy resemble the "hair-bows" necessary for the safety of the workmen in the North River tunnel.

Comparatively few persons entered the new resort last night, but an EVENING WORLD investigator saw enough young men pass through the first door to satisfy him that "business" was being done, although on a limited scale, and in the quietest and most secretive manner.

A reliable informant also told the WORLD he was investigating that it was possible to secure wine, whisky or anything drinkable, beer included, within the secret portals.

Mr. Davis's name was reviled frequently along with that of Mr. August Gould, who ran the "French Hotel" at 235 Sullivan street, and Mr. George McKnight, who was the licensee of Mr. Carey Welch's "hole in the Wall" at 117 Fourth avenue.

Irregular rather out classes the others, and the writer expects to see him win easily. O. P. H. may be second and Knapp may beat the others.

Second Race—Purse $100, weight in, odds 7 to 5, for horses seven years old.

Fifth Race—Purse $100, weight in, odds 7 to 5, for horses seven years old.

Tenth Race—Purse $100, weight in, odds 7 to 5, for horses seven years old.

Irregular rather out classes the others, and the writer expects to see him win easily. O. P. H. may be second and Knapp may beat the others.

Second Race—Purse $100, weight in, odds 7 to 5, for horses seven years old.

Fifth Race—Purse $100, weight in, odds 7 to 5, for horses seven years old.

Tenth Race—Purse $100, weight in, odds 7 to 5, for horses seven years old.

Irregular rather out classes the others, and the writer expects to see him win easily. O. P. H. may be second and Knapp may beat the others.

Second Race—Purse $100, weight in, odds 7 to 5, for horses seven years old.

Fifth Race—Purse $100, weight in, odds 7 to 5, for horses seven years old.

Tenth Race—Purse $100, weight in, odds 7 to 5, for horses seven years old.

Irregular rather out classes the others, and the writer expects to see him win easily. O. P. H. may be second and Knapp may beat the others.

Second Race—Purse $100, weight in, odds 7 to 5, for horses seven years old.

Fifth Race—Purse $100, weight in, odds 7 to 5, for horses seven years old.

Tenth Race—Purse $100, weight in, odds 7 to 5, for horses seven years old.

Irregular rather out classes the others, and the writer expects to see him win easily. O. P. H. may be second and Knapp may beat the others.